

Binney, Cary set for Dialogic sessions

Alto saxophonist David Binney has a large and growing following in the jazz community because of his unique style, total commitment, inspired and inspiring performances.

What about the man behind the horn?

Professor Norman Cornett has scheduled two dialogic sessions with the artist where you can meet with Binney and discover more about his motivation and vision. The two-hour sessions are scheduled for June 28 and 29 at 2 pm, St. John the Evangelist or Red Roof Church, 137 President Kennedy, just north of Place des Arts. The cost for each session is $5.

Among the newer voices to be heard at the Festival, pianist Marc Cary, who performs at l'Astral in a trio at 9pm, July 3, will take part in three dialogic sessions. Meet Cary, in conversation with Cornett, July 2, 3 or 4 for two hours starting at 2pm at St. James United Church, 463 Ste. Catherine W. Tickets cost $5 a session.

Info: haveyouexperienced.wordpress.com, professor.normancornett@gmail.com